Data Protection Declaration

A Dhaoine Uaisle,

We the undersigned are fully cognisant of the implications of the following statement:

Kerry County Council (LGOPC) recognises that suppliers may submit personal data on behalf of themselves or their employees and this information can be regarded as “Personal Data” under the Data Protection Acts of 1988 and 2003. Kerry County Council (LGOPC), as the Data Controller, may upload and disclose details (including personal data, such as names of supplier personnel, contact details, supplier personnel experience, etc.) onto the www.supplygov.ie database and website and may otherwise share and/or disclose such details with other bodies/entities within the public and/or semi-State sectors that use the www.supplygov.ie service. The list of such public/semi-State bodies/entities is maintained on www.supplygov.ie and is updated from time to time. In addition, supplier details may be shared with the Office of Government Procurement, the Local Government Management Agency and with other bodies under law such as the Revenue Commissioners and Department of Social Protection. By tendering to LGOPC, I/we consent on my own behalf and on behalf of those individuals whose personal data I/we submit to LGOPC, to these identified disclosures, and I/we hereby confirm that I/we have procured all relevant consents in this regard.

Is mise, le meas
